^^ MAGNIFICENT PARTIALLY REHABILITATED PALACE WITH HOTEL PROJECT^^ We present to you a true architectural gem: a majestic palace dating back to the year 1600, erected by the illustrious guilas family, home to the distinguished Marquises of La Paz for generations. This imposing building has been partially rehabilitated, with special attention given to its ground floor, where 5 spacious halls with high ceilings have been magnificently adapted for events, three bathrooms, and three additional rooms, an office, a grand industrial kitchen, and two extensive courtyards. On the upper floor, 18 rooms with private bathrooms have been designed to accommodate the grandeur of a future hotel. The property also includes an annex building that once served as stables, now transformed into a two-story independent apartment. But the story doesnt end here. Beneath this palace lie mysterious caves, surrounded by legends and mysteries that only add charm to this...
